

Atos - Unify Software Support

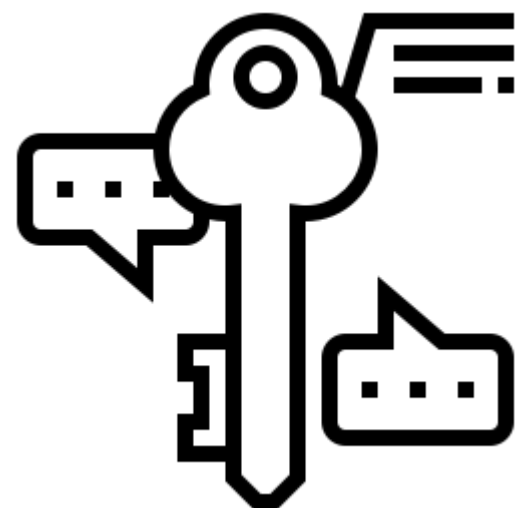

Atos-Unify Software Support (SSP) provides you the necessary updates and upgrades to software and security to keep your system running at its best.

Importantly, only systems covered by SSP can access high-level expert technical assistance from Unify.

SSP and Phone System Security

Protects against viruses and hacking.

Access to the latest features and applications.

Access to Unify High Level Support Technical Team.

Integrate with other office applications.

Atos-Unify Software Support

Your Atos-Unify Telephone System relies on complex communications software which must be upgraded to maintain its:

Security – protection against malware, hacking and toll-fraud

Features – software is continually being improved

Compatibility – Ability to integrate with other office applications – for example, myPortal for Outlook.

Atos-Unify Software Support (SSP) provides you the necessary updates and upgrades to software and security to keep your system running at its best.

Importantly, only systems covered by SSP can access high-level expert technical assistance from Atos.

Your Atos phone system comes with 36 months of SSP. But after that period, to retain the same level of security and feature updates, you must purchase an additional period of Unify SSP.

Atos-Unify Software Support Benefits

Atos-Unify Software Support provides:

- The latest software which protects your business against viruses and hacking
- Access to the latest software releases, patches and upgrades
- Access to the latest new features and applications
- Compatibility - updates to PC and mobile device operating systems and new releases to popular office software applications require updates in our phone system software
- Ability for Evotec to access to the Unify High Level support Technical Team on your behalf.

Buy now and Save

Buy now to avoid paying more

If you let your Atos-Unify SSP lapse, and then you need it in future, you will be required to pay an additional re-instatement fee to bring it up to date. This amount of this fee depends on the period the SSP has lapsed.

Buy now to save on adding more users

Atos-Unify Software Support pricing is based on the number of extensions on your system. When you buy Software Support you will not need to pay for any future users you add to the system until the Software Support period ends.
